

Let's Look at Bats

HAVE FUN!

By Ruth Berman

DISCUSS

Talk through your thoughts.

- Before reading this book, talk about what you know about bats.
- After reading this book, explain what you learned about bats.

CREATE

Make an experience of your own.

- Using materials around your house, make a bat and be sure to include all body parts.
- Write a poem or a song about bats. Share it with someone.

IMAGINE

Use your imagination to explore.

- Pretend you are a bat. Find a playground and hang upside down. Practice making bat faces.
- Use what you know about bats to write a memoir book (reread Memoirs of a Hamster).

EXPLORE

Like this book? Find more:

- Fly Guy Presents Bats by Tedd Arnold
- Batman: Going Ape by Laurie S. Sutton
- Batman: An Origin Story by John Sazaklis
- Bat Hospital by Clare Hibbert