

Day and Night

By Conrad J. Storad

DISCUSS

Talk through your thoughts.

- Your opinion is what you think about something. Which do you like best? Day or night? Why?
- This book is nonfiction which means it is full of true facts. Tell someone true facts about where you live.

CREATE

Make an experience of your own.

- Make an opposite card memory game. Start with the words day and night. What other opposite words do you know?
- Find a container that you can trace for circles. Create a colorful circle picture.

IMAGINE

Use your imagination to explore.

- Find three balls and pretend they are the Earth, Sun and Moon. Move them east and west!
- Imagine you took a trip to the Sun or Moon. Draw a picture all about your trip.

EXPLORE

Like this book? Find more:

- Earth by Elisa Peters
- Look! by Ted Lewin
- Night Animals by Bobbie Kalman
- Time for Bed, the Babysitter Said by Peggy Perry Anderson