

Dozer's Run: A True Story of a Dog and His Race

HAVE FUN!

By Debbie Levy

DISCUSS

Talk through your thoughts.

- This is a true story about a dog and runners. Look through the book with someone and talk about how the author wrote some of the story in italics. Why did she do that?
- Dozer is now part of a group that raises money to fight cancer. Talk about how you can help others who are sick.

CREATE

Make an experience of your own.

- With permission, participate in an active event that can help others.
- Make a list of the way you stay active and healthy. Find some friends and PLAY!

IMAGINE

Use your imagination to explore.

- With permission, watch this video of Dozer crossing the finish line <http://umm.edu/health/video/cancer/dozer-the-dog-runs-a-marathon>. Imagine what it feels like to cross a finish line.
- Think about what other animals could run 13 miles. Write a story about this.

EXPLORE

Like this book? Find more:

- Akiak: A Tale From the Iditarod by Robert J. Blake
- All About Boxers by Erika L. Shores
- Boris Keeps Fit by Sharon Callen
- Hot Rod Hamster and the Wacky Whatever Race! by Cynthia Lord