

White Space

By Ilsa J. Bick

DISCUSS

Talk through your thoughts.

- Did you think this book was confusing or exhilarating? What do you think of the author's writing style?
- How does reading science fiction like this bring us to a greater understanding of what could be? How does this book give you a new perspective on literature?

CREATE

Make an experience of your own.

- Try writing a short story in the voice of a small child. How does this perspective change your word choices? What details about the stories does a child perceive differently than an adult would?
- Draw a character map. Put each character in a bubble, and draw connections between each of the characters as they connected throughout the storyline.

IMAGINE

Use your imagination to explore.

- Does this story line remind you of any other books you've read or movies that you've seen? Which ones? Why?

EXPLORE

Like this book? Find more:

- The Dickens Mirror by Ilsa J. Bick
- The Shadow Prince by Bree Despain
- Draw the Dark by Ilsa J. Bick